

Tom Ramsey

Chef | Raconteur

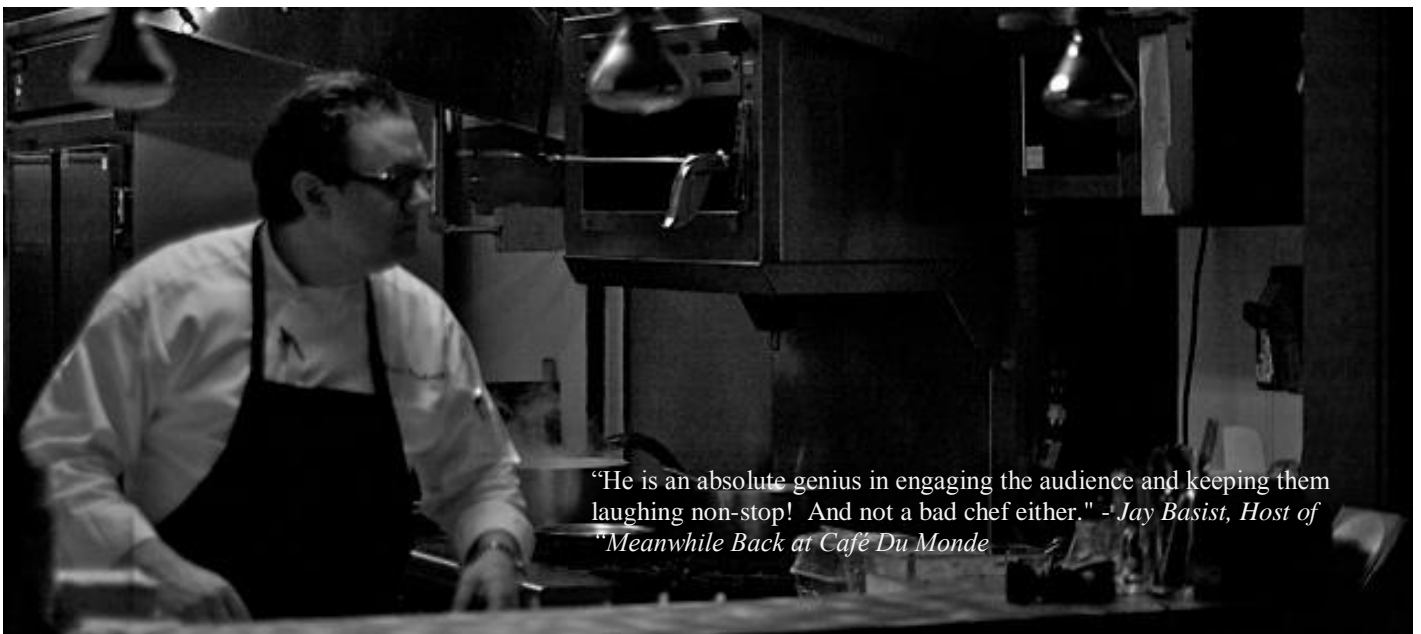

"Tom is one of the smartest, funniest and most dedicated people I know. I have seen him single handedly create world class food events out of thin air. I don't think he understands the concept of "no, that can't be done." He is a great mentor to the Mississippi food community at large and champion of the New South." - Andrew Zimmern, Host of Travel Chanel's "Bizarre Foods"

"I used to want to be a chef, now I just want to be Tom. He's the Chef Ramsey we should be watching." - Dean Carpentier, Independent Writer & Producer

"Tom's on-stage presence transcended the typical cooking show and became pure entertainment. His storytelling and cooking held the attention of a full theater from his introduction to beyond the end of the show. I'd love to get him back on-board." Lisa Richard - Cruise Director, Celebrity Cruise Lines

"Tom Ramsey is the most natural entertainer I have met. He is at ease with a crowd of 200 or a dinner table party of 6. He's a one in a million character." - Jeff Good, President of Mangia Bene Restaurant Group

"He is an absolute genius in engaging the audience and keeping them laughing non-stop! And not a bad chef either." - Jay Basist, Host of "Meanwhile Back at Café Du Monde"
